

Green shoots or weeds?

Coffee & Croissants
with
Bruce Whitfield

Join Bruce Whitfield for the first in a series of information sharing sessions not to be missed.

Bruce and a panel of subject matter experts will discuss:

“Green Shoots or Weeds?” For much of 2009 thus far, the term ‘green shoots’ has been bandied around. The question is: has this term been designed by over optimistic market watchers, and should we not rather consider an alternative opinion that the recovery from this Global Economic meltdown will take longer than anticipated, and the first sightings of green are in fact weeds?

When: 26 August 2009
7h30 – 8h00 for coffee and croissants, discussion will begin at 8h00 sharp, ending the approximately 9h30.

Where: Milpark Business School

Booking: Linda Erasmus
linda@iob.co.za

Cost: No charge

Brought to you by:

The Institute of Bankers
in South Africa

