

Green shoots or weeds?

Event report

Coffee & Croissants with Bruce Whitfield

Bruce Whitfield

Panel participants:

Left to right: Adri Grobler, Performance Route, Dennis Dykes: Chief Economist from Nedbank, Roger Baxter: Chief Economist from the Chamber of Mines, Trevor Browse: COE of Motor Finance Corporation, Rudi Dicks: Executive Director Naledi and Rob Moody: Debt Originator at Investec.

The panel's opinion of whether the economy is currently seeing "Green Shoots or Weeds" was divided straight down the middle, with 3 participants believing the sightings are "Green Shoots" and the other three believing the greenery to be "Weeds".

The lively debate between the subject matter experts, facilitated by Bruce Whitfield took many twists and turns as the global and domestic economic situation was unpacked.

Look out for details on the next event:

2010 Soccer World Cup, what does it really mean for South Africa?

24th November 2009

The Institute of Bankers
in South Africa

MILPARK
BUSINESS SCHOOL