

BUILDING YOUR PROFESSIONAL CAPITAL

The Global Financial Crisis of 2008 rooted in the banking sector has vividly demonstrated the importance of continuous investment in the training and education of the banking community throughout the regions of the world.

Banking knowledge is vital in ensuring effectiveness, professionalism and upgrading of skills, which all add to the advancement of the industry in general. Because banking is probably one of the most dominant phenomena in recent economic memory, and a critical service in today's world, it is important that those who provide such service are well trained and equipped with the latest skills to do so.

Changes in the banking environment make it necessary for banking staff to equip themselves with banking skills and knowledge in the financial sector. The IOBSA membership and designations are intended to empower members to acquire knowledge, skills, attitudes and values required to operate responsibly in the banking and financial services sector.

The IOBSA is well positioned and equipped to provide the best knowledge for those in the industry or planning to pursue careers in this sector. We are embarking on a journey to impact positively on the banking industry. The IOBSA and South African Banks, bring together invaluable expertise and resources to provide any of their banking staff with the best education, positioning them as potential leaders in the industry. Let us contribute by building your professional capital.
